

Celebrating Malcolm X / Fri. MAY 19, 2017

Shut'em Down, Shut'em Down!

All 125th Businesses Closed 1PM to 4PM

12PM Black Power March Assembles:

Adam Clayton Powell Jr. State Office Building
125th and Adam Clayton Powell Jr. Blvd. (7th Ave.)

Cultural Tribute to Malcolm X

6PM, Fri. May 19, 2017

Spoken Word

Gha'il Rhodes Benjamin

Mandela Brathwaite

African Drum

Indigo & Joyce Jones

Film

"Malcolm X Speaks"

Jazz Performance

Jazzmeia Horn Quartet

Theatre

Impact Repertory Group

Adam Clayton Powell Jr. State Office Building
125th and Adam Clayton Powell Jr. Blvd. (7th Ave.)

MALCOLM X CONFERENCE / SAT. MAY 20, 2017

All souls Episcopal Church, 88 St. Nicholas Ave. (off 114th St.)

9:30AM to 10:30AM REGISTRATION

10:30AM TO 11:00AM GREETINGS FROM D12 AND SUPPORTERS

11:30AM KEYNOTE ADDRESS

CHAIRMAN FRED HAMPTON JR.

Son of Black Panther Leader Chairman Fred Hampton

Prisoners of Conscience Committee (POCC) / Black Panther Party Cubs (BPPC)

1st. Panel 12pm to 2PM / Lunch / 2nd Panel 3pm to 5pm / 5:30pm Closing Plenary

(1) Historical Demand for Independence & Reparations

A serious discussion on Black peoples revolutionary battles for self – determination through independence, separation and repatriation; Political and legal battles for reparations as remedy for United States' crimes against humanity and ethnic cleansing of Black people.

(2) Political & Cultural Battle for Independence & Freedom

How can a Plebiscite / Referendum be a weapon for Black self-determination and weapon against rising American Fascism. An open discussion of "Which Way Forward" for Black people in the age of the Trump / Hillary platform of lies and derailing our fight for freedom.

Sponsored by December 12th Movement / Info and Endorse @ (718) 398-1766 / www.D12M.com

Supported by CEMOTAP / National Black United Front / People's Organization for Progress/Black Lives Matter of Greater N.Y.